

presents a FREE professional development
workshop on family diversity

That's a Family!

A fresh and revealing look at the different kinds of families in America today

This free workshop provides educators and youth-service providers the tools they need to teach elementary school-aged children how to respect and value different family structures. Learn how to use both the award-winning documentary—which showcases kids speaking candidly about what it's like to have parents who are divorced, gay or lesbian, single, of different races or religions, or to be raised by adoptive parents or guardians—and the extensive curriculum guide to create safe and welcoming schools and communities for children of all backgrounds.

Tuesday, October 2

4:30 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

(dinner will be provided)

Children's Museum of Montana

22 Railroad Square, Great Falls, MT 59401

- ★ Everyone leaves with a FREE workshop manual and full curriculum guide!
- ★ Each participating organization will receive one FREE copy of the film!
- ★ The Montana Office of Public Instruction is offering 3 CEU's for this workshop!
